

Maxcon Industries and sister company Cryeng, have been selected to deliver 2 cryogenic 250,000L ethylene storage tanks as part of an LNG facility on Curtis Island, Queensland. The project continues the group's support of the LNG industry following orders for 185,000L LNG tanks for Pluto, Western Australia.