

Aquatec Maxcon has been awarded a contract to design and construct wastewater treatment plant for the Nickel West Leinster mine facility.

The plant will serve a design population equivalent to 2,500 people and is based on our proprietary Aqua-Hybrid nutrient reduction process. This technology has now been used for over 600 plants throughout Australasia and is recognised for its robust performance, making it extremely well suited to remote operations as are often required for the minerals industry.