

Aquatec Maxcon has been selected by Smiths Snackfoods to design and construct a wastewater treatment and recycling facility for its Wynnum food processing plant. The plant will be upgraded to utilise Aquatec Maxcon's innovative internal circulation upflow anaerobic technology to reduce the load on the existing MBBR aerobic treatment plant enabling it to deliver improved product quality and will be further enhanced utilising ultrafiltration and reverse osmosis to produce high quality water.